Springtime in the USA

Walking down the street it hit me. It has been ten years since I have experienced Springtime in the U.S. in person! I was enjoying the smell of freshly cut grass and the fragrance of the ground warming in the sun. It's nice, as nice as I remember.

This break has also provided a time to rest, pay off some debt I have accumulated over the last ten years and volunteer in the International Victory Bible Institute offices.

The Team!!!

I was walking through the crowd and realized people were talking about me! Usually that's not a good thing. Students from the Victory World Missions Training Center and staff were standing in the foyer during break. I heard them talking about how I had been able to stay on the mission field for over 10 years without having to come home to raise money. When I spoke to the class, they had many questions about raising support.

Missionaries asked me to lunch and asked the same question, "How do you do it?"

I have one answer 'The Team!' It is the team who prays for me, contributes funds for me, and cares for me when I come home. I know I never work alone. I go and the many who stand with me, often not seen, are the success story .

Thank you Team!!!

The Road to Laos

I am excited as the plans are coming together for a trip into Laos in the fall. I will be able to travel with someone who has been there before and can help with what needs to be done.

I have also been able to communicate with others who are working in and out of Laos with the same goal – to equip believers from Laos to reach their nation. They have shared words of wisdom and warning from their work.

EXTREMELY IMPORTANT

Vietnam is a communist country, any emails you send to me please do not use any overtly Christian phrases or words.

Missionary stories soon to be a book!

Missionaries have some of the most amazing stories! I am collecting many stories from the many missionaries connected with Victory Christian Center. One of the missionaries is a professional editor and is helping me prepare these stories for publishing. When the book comes out, I will let everyone know. It will be a great read!!
